

HAWAIIAN LOVE AND ROMANCE

...And SEX!

A Presentation by Lehua Lopez

Saturday, July 31, 2021 / 2:30 PM to 4:00 PM

KA LA KAPU, Polynesian Dance School

Almost every Hawaiian song is a love song! So much of our music describes the love, not only between people, but also the love, the aloha, Hawaiians have for the land, the ocean, the forests, birds, fish, and flowers. So many songs evoke the memories of an early romance or the remembrances of a long-time love. Come hear the music and the feelings so deeply expressed in the melodies and hula of the Islands. And, finally, let Lehua Lopez also delight you with the naughty side of Hawaiian Love and Romance!

Lehua Lopez, a native Hawaiian cultural anthropologist, was born and raised in Hawai`i and has been teaching keiki and adult classes in Hawaiian culture for more than 40 years. She is a gifted presenter and delights her audiences with mesmerizing stories and complex insights.
